> Today we mourn the passing of a beloved old friend, Common > Sense, who has been with us for many years. No one knows for sure > how old he was, since his birth records were long ago lost in > bureaucratic red tape. He will be remembered as having > cultivated such valuable lessons as:
> - Knowing when to come in out of the rain;
> - Why the early bird gets the worm;
> - Life isn't always fair;
> - And maybe it was my fault.
> Common Sense lived by simple, sound financial policies > (don't spend more than you can earn) and reliable strategies (adults, not > children, are in charge).

> His health began to deteriorate rapidly when > well-intentioned but overbearing > regulations were set in place. Reports of a 6-year-old boy > charged with sexual > harassment for kissing a classmate; teens suspended from > school for using > mouthwash after lunch; and a teacher fired for reprimanding
> an unruly student, only worsened his condition.
> Common Sense lost ground when parents attacked teachers for > doing the job that they themselves had failed to do in disciplining their > unruly children.
> It declined even further when schools were required to get > parental > consent to administer sun lotion or an aspirin to a
